Women good and women bad, Women gay and women sad, Women big and women small, Women short and women tall, Women fat and women lean. Women sawest and women lean,
Women sawest and women lean,
Women bought and women sold,
Women poor and women rich,
And a good many more women sich.

The first woman in this world was Eve. Eve was a bad girl. She didn't belong to the good templars. Eve liked apple cider too well—she wanted hers dry. We never saw Eve, but they say she was a pretty girl. Her fellow was a chap by the name of Adam. We never went to school with him. Eve was like the rest of her sisters—just was like the rest of her sisters—just tell her not to do a thing and she would be sure to do it. Eve must have been a country girl. She didn't care much for fashion, and she made her own clothes without a sewing machine. She would be rather behind the times should she visit us now.

Some women are very pretty. We don't like pretty women—there are always so many fellows around them. They emind us of a lot of flies on a molasses stick. We like the molasses, but—bother the flies.

Good women are plenty in this country, but they will never tell you of it; you have got to trail em out yourself. Bad women are everywhere. They are like rotten apples in a barrel of good ones—apt to throw their decayed influence around them. They will always try to make you believe they are good. Don't take a bad woman. She is counterfeit treasure. Look out for trade mark on a laugh. They make you feel good clear to your sleeve buttons.

Gay women are jolly fellows; always

A sad woman ought to wear spectacles with pink colored glasses in them.

That would make her look at the world in a different light. in a different light.

We don't know that we like a big woman better than a little one. If she is so big that a step-ladder is required to kiss her, we most respectfully decline in favor of the small one. As we refleat further on this subject, we come to the conclusion that the small ones are always 'preferable. They have a tendency to hang themselves—around a fellow—and we want to furnish the material for a hanging-post.

We hate a negan woman. We feel terial for a hanging-post.

We hate a mean woman. We feel like saying "deliver us from evil," whenever we see one. But give us a sweet woman—one of nature's own children—with rosy cheeks and loving eyes; with a noble heart, a high-toned mind, a pure soul and a healthy body, refined in taste, developed in intellect; be she poor or rich, young or old, large or small—to such a one we could say, "fly unto our arms, darling; we love you."

Death of the Irish Giant

James Murphy, Jr., known as the Irish grant, died at Baltimore last week of consumption. Mr. Murphy was born in Waterford, Ireland, was thirty-three years of age, and unmarried. He measured nearly eight feet in height. The Baltimore Sun says of him: "Some months ago, when he was in comparatively good health, he weighed 351 pounds. He had weighed more when his health was better. He had been in this country twenty-four years, having been brought here by his father and mother, who still live at the house on Chester street. The giant traveled three years with Barnum, as one of the great living curiosities of the world. In his prefessional career, he visited every part of this country from Maine to California and the extreme south. After terminating his engagement with Barnum, the giant traveled with a circus, where he contracted the broaching Barnum, the giant traveled with a circus, where he contracted the brenchial disease which finally ended his life. When'in good health he had a fresh, pleasant face, and, like all large men, and particularly all giants, except those of story books and nursery tales, was as amiable as he was great in stature. He had a very youthful expression of expr countenance, coal-black hair, and his hands were so largo that one of them could cover the head of a large man, just as an ordinary hand would cover an orange His feet were not so large proportionately as the hands, but be-side an ordinary shoe, one of his shoes would seem to be a sufficient habitation would seem to be a sufficient habitation for 'the old woman' of the story book, who 'had so many children she did not know what to do.' When the undertaker came to measure the dead giant his coffin, it was found that the deceased was full eight feet long. Surely the measure of a man is correctly known when he is dead. The coffin will be nearly 21 feet long. The body was visited by hundreds of people yesterday, the giant being well known on Fell's Point, where he was justly esteemed for his amiability, especially by the children, 'who, after the first shrinkage, generally liked to be taken in his arms and elevated as far above the heads of and elevated as far above the heads of their parents as he could conveniently hold them.

Tribune gives an exceedingly simple precaution in the use of kerosene or precaution in the use of kerosene or any other cheap oil. His plan is to fill the Ismp lightly with jeweler's cotton before pouring in the oil. The cotton absorbs a great deal of the oil, and in case of accident the latter does not flow about, and can thus be extinguished. On one occasion his kerosene lamp burst, and a mass of flame jamped out; but, being in a compact body, he covered it instantly with a bucket, and with the help of a water-pitcher and a few wet towels extinguished it before the slightest damage was done. Had it not been for the cotton the flaming oil would have flowed in all directions. would have flowed in all directions.

MAUNA LOA. - The volcano of Mauna Loa, in Hawaii, made a brilliant display on the morning of the 10th of January before daylight. The action began in the summit crater of Mokuaweoweo. "The heavens are aglow at night, and a grand pillar of cumulous clouds coronate the mountain by day," writes an eye wit-ness. The summit chimney or crater of Mokuaweewee had been closed for about eight weeks, during the latter part of which time the earthquake shocks had been increasing in strength and frequency. This new opening of the volcano will serve as a safety-valve, and as long as it lasts there will not probably be any more severe shocks nor any other eruptions on Hawaii.

MEDICAL ADVERTISING,-The medical profession are out-spoken in their de-nunciation of the system of medical advertising, and declare that any medicine that is advertised is a fraud. How thoroughly inconsistent and unfair is such an argument. The men who are so loud in their criticisms, are those who advertise themselves as medical savans by ostentations display; splendid residences with massive door plates; fast horses and costly carriages. Dr. J. Walker, of California, an old practitioner, respected alike for his skill and er, respected alike for his skill and conscientious independence, dares to differ; and having discovered in his Vinegar Bitters a purely herbalistic medicine, free from all spirituous poisons—a wonderful specific for numerous disorders, advertises the same for the relief of his fellow-man, and is borne out in his declaration of its many virtues by thousands of invalids, who are being cured of disease by its use. being cured of disease by its usc.

Blood Diseases. The blood being the source from which our systems are built up and from which we derive our mental as well as physical capabilities, how important that it should be kept pure. If it contains vile festering poisons all organic functions are weakened thereby. Settling upon important organs, as the lungs, liver or kidneys, the effect is most disastrous. Hence it behoves every one to keen their blood in a upon important organs, as the lungs, liver or kidneys, the effect is most disastrous. Hence it behooves every one to keep their blood in a perfectly healthy condition and more especially does this apply at this particular season of the year than at any other. No matter what the exciting cause may be, the real cause of a large proportion of all diseases is bad blood. Now, Dr. Pierce does not wish to place his Golden Medical Discovery in the catalogue of quack patent nostrums by recommending it to cure every disease, nor does he so recommend it, on the contrary there are hundreds of diseases that he acknowledges it will not cure; but what he does claim is this this, that there is but one form of blood disease that it will not cure, and that disease is cancer. He does not recommend his Discovery for that disease, yet be knows it to be the most searching blood cleanser yet discovered, and that it will free the blood and system of all other known bloed poisons, be they animal, vegetable or mineral. The Golden Discovery is warranted by him to cure the worst forms of skin diseases, as all forms of blotches, pimples and cruptions, also all glandular swellings, and the worst form of scrofulous and ulcerated sores of neck, legs or other parts, and all scrofulous diseases of the bones, as white swellings, fever sores, hip joint and spinal diseases.

Dear Sir—My wife first became lame nine years ago. Swellings would appear and disappear on her hip, and she was gradually becoming reduced, and her whole system rotten with disease. In 1871 a swelling broke on her that time there are several cpenings. Have say nothing will do any good but a surgical operation.

July 16, 1873, he writes thus: My wife has certainly received a great benefit from the use of your Discovery, for she was not able to get off the bed and was not expected to five a week when she commenced using it, a year ago. She has been doing most of her work for over six months. Has used twenty bottles and still using it. Her recovery is considered as almost a miracle, and we attribute it all to the use of your valuable medicine. I can cheerfully recommend it as a blood purifier and strongth restorer. J.M. ROBINSON.

The test of time and experience is the only sure guide in selecting an insrument. It is of little consequence that are man makes one or two fine pianos or organs for a fair and intrigues successfully for a prize. It is the quality of everyday manufacture that concerns the buyer—not what exceptional and costly instruments have been specially made for exhibition. The SMITH AMERICAN ORGANS are of high and uniform excellence, and are the best for actual use, having been tried and proved for twenty-five years. wenty-five years.

IMPORTANT INVENTION .- "In less than IMPORTANT INVENTION.—"In less than ton years there will not be a metal trues in use," was the prediction of one of our most eminent physicians on examining the Elastic Trues of the Elastic Trues Co., 683 Broadway, N. Y. The extensive adoption of these unequaled instruments, which certainly ours rupture without torture, will make them the only trueses used in much less than ton years. We advise all sufferers to send to the above company for descriptive circulars, as these trueses are sent to all parts of the country by mail.—Com.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM causes the lungs to throw off the matter that is collected over the air-cells, and makes the patient breathe more freely and purifies the blood, gives strength to the body and tone to the digestive organs, and heals the irritated parts and give life and health to the system. Asthma is soon relieved by its use.

It is a rare thing that physicians give any countenance to a medicine, the manufacture of which is a secret. About the only exception we know of is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. This, we believe, all endorse, and many of them use it in their practice with great success.

PERSONS requiring purgatives or pills should be careful what they buy. Some pills not only cause griping pains, but leave the bowels in a torpid, costive state. Parsons' Purgative Pills will relieve the bowels and cleanse the blood without injury to the system.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herts found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of Califor-nia, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. of the system.
